2. The Information Officer - Section 51(1)(b)

- 2.1. The Act prescribes the appointment of an Information Officer for public bodies where such Information Officer is responsible to, inter alia, assess request for access to information. The head of a private body fulfils such a function in terms of section 51 of the Act. The Company has opted to appoint an Information Officer to assess such a request for access to information as well as to oversee its required functions in terms of the Act.

- 2.2. The Information Officer appointed in terms of the Act also refers to the Information Officer as referred to in the POPIA Act. The Information Officer oversees the functions and responsibilities as required for in terms of both this Act as well as the duties and responsibilities in terms of section 55 of the POPIA Act after registering with the Information Regulator.
- 2.3. The Information Officer may appoint, where it is deemed necessary, Deputy Information Officers, as allowed in terms of section 17 of the Act as well as section 56 of the POPIA Act. This is in order to render the Company as accessible as reasonable possible for requesters of its records and to ensure fulfilment of its obligations and responsibilities as prescribed in terms of section 55 of the POPI Act. All request for information in terms of this Act must be addressed to the Information Officer.
